

Team Sport Australia Award

In 2002, The Sport Australia Hall of Fame developed an award to recognise teams who have contributed significantly to Australia's reputation as a great sporting nation. Teams recognised are not Inducted into the Hall of Fame although individual members may be.

Australian teams are considered through performances that have made significant contribution to the nation's sporting heritage and have competed at the highest level of participation available in that sport for that team and in a specific event.

The teams will only be recognised for the awards if they are not currently competing as it's designed to reflect on the overall team success during a period of time.

A team can be defined as a combination of two or more players who form a side or unit for the purposes of a specific event.
